Report on the activities of the OTDK working group

The president of the organization said that the Doctoral Student Association is not only trying to set an example in its own science-organizing activities, but also wants to help to all doctoral students. In April 2019, the Economics Section of the National Scientific Students' Conference was held in Pécs, and the Section was organized by the Faculty of Economics.

The Organization wanted to support doctoral students who were actively involved in the execution of operational tasks, which is why an OTDK working group was established.

Report of the Compensation and Allowance Committee for the first half of 2019

The Organization's Vice President of Economics presented the pre-sent report. He said that the main task of the Compensation and Allowance Committee again this year was to prepare and evaluate the applications and to prepare decisions on the reports received and any requests for amendments.

Report of the Scientific and Study Committee for the first half of 2019

The Vice Scientific President of the Organization presented the previously sent report. He said that this semester the work on the Interdisciplinary Doctoral Conference was the biggest organizational task for the Scientific and Study Committee. The electronic volumes of the abstracts were received, followed by the studies that have been edited by the Commission this year. He said that the Committee members had helped the Foreign Affairs and Market Relations Committee to organize the "Successful Doctoral Career Course" in Pécs, and the event was a success.

The VIII.th Interdisciplinary Doctoral Conference was held between May 24 and 25, 2019 in the Faculty of Law. During the two days, 132 lectures were held in 10 sections, with 6 sections on Friday and 4 on Saturday. The conference received a total of 42 posters, divided into 2 sections. The plenary lecture was held on Friday, with dr. It was István Kónya.

Concluding the report, he said that the MedPÉCS conference to be held in 2019 is already under discussion.

Report by the Committee on Foreign Affairs and Market Relations for the first half of 2019

The Vice President for Foreign Affairs and Market Relations said that the organization of the Successful Doctoral Career Course was a milestone for the work of the Foreign Affairs and Market Relations Committee and thanked the Scientific and Academic Committee for its active involvement in the organization. She said that the Committee also contributed to the organization of the 2019 Interdisciplinary Doctoral Conference.

Report on the activities of the Audit Committee for the first half of 2019

The president of the Audit Committee presented the pre-sent report. He said that there were two monthly meetings, one before the Bureau meeting, to formally check the outstanding public scholarship applications received, and one after the Delegation Meeting to check the level of scholarship payments. She said that the Audit Committee, at its inception, held a mandate check on all persons who carry out activities within the Organization.

The main task of the Commission is to control the management and the proper functioning of the Committee, including the regularity of decision-making at meetings and the annual budget. They were also involved in the process of evaluating applications and were represented at meetings of each body.
